Saturday, Dec. 8 – JACCC, Noguchi Plaza

Session 4: 9:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

All Sessions are Free

- Highlights:
- Learn about the significance of Azusa Street Revival
  - Hear stories about the work of the Holy Spirit in the birth of many Japanese American churches
  - Seek the Lord for a move of the Holy Spirit today
  - Witness the replanting of a grapefruit tree in honor of Rev. William Seymour and symbolizing God’s vision for the Japanese American community

Our vision is to honor God, specifically honoring the incredible move of the Holy Spirit during the Azusa Street Revival which began in 1906. With Azusa Street being in the heart of Little Tokyo and on land owned by the Japanese American Cultural and Community Center (JACCC), we believe it is important for the Japanese American community to recognize the significance of the work the Holy Spirit did at Azusa Street Revival and His role in the start of many Japanese American churches. We need a move of the Holy Spirit today and believe by honoring God and His Spirit, blessings will be released upon our community and beyond!

Supporting Churches: Ascent Christian Community, Catalyst Christian Community, Cerritos Baptist Church, Cornerstone Christian Fellowship, Evergreen Baptist Church (SGV) and The Light Christian Fellowship
